

VOTER VAULT DATA PRIVACY AND SECURITY TERMS OF AGREEMENT

Protecting personal data, data files, and databases is of great importance to the Cobb County Republican Party. Please take a moment to read the following terms of agreement:

- You are being provided confidential access to personal and private data of individuals and groups (Confidential Information). This Confidential Information is not to be copied, transmitted, relayed, moved, shared, or used outside the control of the given database for any reason at any time.
- Treat as exclusively confidential all Confidential Information, including database records of individuals, which have been or may hereafter be made available and take reasonable precautions to protect such Confidential Information.
- Not use, decompile, or reverse engineer the Confidential Information or other information deemed as proprietary or designated as confidential, for any purpose.
- Upon request by Disclosing Party, Receiving Party shall return to Disclosing Party or destroy (if requested by Disclosing Party) any Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party in its possession or control and in all types of media and computer memory, and shall destroy any notes, memorandum, projections, reports or other documents prepared by the Receiving Party that contain or otherwise reflect Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party. Upon returning or destroying the Confidential Information of Disclosing Party, Receiving Party shall provide to Disclosing Party a written certification signed by an officer of Receiving Party that Receiving Party has complied with this Section of the Agreement.
- Access to this Confidential Information is forbidden outside of those expressly authorized and agreed to the Data Privacy and Security Terms of Agreement. Access to Confidential Information may be suspended or revoked for failure to uphold the Data Privacy and Security Terms if Agreement.
